

CHARGES PAPERS WITH UNFAIRNESS

Judge Mann Declares They Have Been Acting in Unfriendly Way.

POINTS TO HIS RECORD

Takes Tucker to Task for Statements Made During His Campaign.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.—Judge William H. Mann, candidate for the nomination for Governor of Virginia, addressed the voters of Northampton county, in the Casino here this afternoon. It was one of the largest and most enthusiastic audiences ever seen at any political meeting held here. The speaker was introduced by J. T. Daniel, a prominent lawyer of this place, who presented him as the "next Governor of Virginia."

After dwelling on the questions of good roads, education and other issues at some length, the judge said that the newspapers of Norfolk, Richmond and Newport News had asked him a great many questions on the liquor issue and wondered why he hesitated in answering them. He said that these newspapers had been acting unfriendly toward him and had misunderstood his hesitancy. To these papers, he referred his life and his record for thirty-five years on the liquor question as his answer.

In referring to his competitor's remarks about him being brought into the political arena by the Baptist, Methodist and other churches, he emphatically denied having made such a statement, but said that if these great churches are backing him, he is very pleased to know it. "Why wouldn't they work for my interest?" he said, "when I have been fighting for their homes and their children and have won victories for them? It gives me pleasure to hear these good Christian people say: 'Well done, then good and faithful servant.'"

Still "Waiting to Hear."
In referring to Mr. Tucker's remark that he was going to be elected, Judge Mann said that he was still waiting to hear from his friend as to what he did for local option at his home town in Lexington, on March 20, 1906, when he was professor at the university.

Judge Mann denied that he was counsel for any railroad when a bill was presented by the last Legislature to prohibit the sale of liquor in dining cars, but at the time Mr. Tucker accuses him of being abetted by his principles and not standing by his principles, he stated that he was in the court and was fighting the Byrd bill to stop the granting of license for selling intoxicants on these cars.

"I was opposed to the bill," he said, "and it was defeated, yet Mr. Tucker calls it a lenient measure. If I was absent five minutes in thirty-five years, let Mr. Tucker name five minutes in his life he has ever done anything for local option. These charges of Mr. Tucker are entirely unsupported by facts."

Mr. Mann, addressing the young men, asked them to make a good showing in all their efforts to even surpass the good work done by their fathers. In conclusion, he said that he never expected to be a candidate for another office, that his son would be in his present office, and that he wanted to make a name of which his son would be proud.

"I am for liberty and purity; I am fighting against liquor, and am working for the right, not only for the children of to-day, but for their children's children and for ever," he concluded.

RUSS MADE THREATS.

That is Trend of State's Testimony in Murder Trial.

WHITEVILLE, N. C., April 17.—After the evidence yesterday, it was the trend of the testimony that the defendant had been seen at Bigford's store the evening before Bigford was killed, and of Miss Squires' testimony that she had been with Bigford the night following his assassination, and that the prisoner was a rival suitor for her hand, and that he was assigned as a motive, the taking of testimony for the prosecution in the case of Cleveland Russ, charged with the murder of Bigford, was resumed in the Supreme Court here today. The purport of to-day's testimony was to show that Russ had made threats against Bigford, with corroborative evidence as to Russ's presence at the store the day before the murder.

In an effort to get the case to the jury to-night, so that it may deliberate over Sunday in the event the time has expired, a motion for a continuance of the trial is being held, at which argument of attorneys is being heard.

It was ascertained after 11 o'clock to-night that the argument to the jury could not be completed before Sunday, and Judge Adams, presiding, ordered a recess of the court until Monday morning.

The afternoon and night sessions of the court were largely taken up with the testimony for the defense, which sought to prove an alibi, the aged mother of the defendant being the last witness to-night. The alibi was established with the exception of an hour, the night of the killing, when the prisoner testified he went to the home of his brother, Mr. Clammy Russ, a short distance away, to keep an appointment with him. Not finding his brother at home, he sat on the doorsteps and waited for him, but he never came. The defense will argue that Russ could not have gone four miles across the river, committed the deed, and returned home within an hour. The State has endeavored to bring out on cross-examination that the witnesses might have erred as to length of time and Russ was away from his home longer than an hour.

SOOTHING WASH CURES ECZEMA

Oil of Wintergreen Compound Solves a Vexing Medical Problem.

One of the most vexing problems in all medicine appears at last to have been solved by the most simple of all remedies. Ordinary oil of wintergreen properly compounded with thymol, glycerine and other mild healing liquids, cures the healthy skin while killing and ultimately removing the eczema germs.

This compound, known as D. D. D. Prescription, has now so thoroughly proven its efficacy that druggists recommend it unhesitatingly.

MOST REMARKABLE RECOVERY.

Recommended By A Brother Who Tried Peruna, Mr. Anderson, Of California, Was Rescued From a Seemingly Fatal Illness.

"Peruna certainly saved me from an untimely grave."

MR. ANDREW ANDERSON, 1319 12th Street, Los Angeles, Cal., writes:

"No one seeing me to-day would think that I was at death's door a few years ago with pulmonary troubles. I had frequent bleeding from the lungs, my stomach was out of order, and when I came here for my health no one thought I would recover. My brother in the East had been cured of a very hard cold on the lungs by using Peruna, and he wrote me and advised me to try it. I had little faith, but thought I would give it a trial."

"I noticed a change in my appetite the very first week, and found that I soon began to sleep well. Gradually I began to feel better and took on flesh. Recovery was slow, for I was so far gone, but after seven months I was well."

Tonic and for Colds.
Hon. B. J. Irvin, Mayor of Washington, D. C., writes that he has frequently used Peruna in his family, and has found it excellent for colds and as a tonic.

Pe-ru-na in Tablet Form.

Some people prefer to take tablets rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

Steady use of Peruna I was my old self once more.

Now weigh 175 pounds, am in fine health and spirit, and have been a well man for two years, thanks to Peruna. It certainly saved me from an untimely grave."

Some people prefer to take tablets rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

Steady use of Peruna I was my old self once more.

Now weigh 175 pounds, am in fine health and spirit, and have been a well man for two years, thanks to Peruna. It certainly saved me from an untimely grave."

Some people prefer to take tablets rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

Steady use of Peruna I was my old self once more.

Now weigh 175 pounds, am in fine health and spirit, and have been a well man for two years, thanks to Peruna. It certainly saved me from an untimely grave."

Some people prefer to take tablets rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

Steady use of Peruna I was my old self once more.

Now weigh 175 pounds, am in fine health and spirit, and have been a well man for two years, thanks to Peruna. It certainly saved me from an untimely grave."

Some people prefer to take tablets rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

Steady use of Peruna I was my old self once more.

ways the supreme consideration. Furthermore, it is men, not measures, which count most with the Turkish soldiery. They have absolute confidence in Nazim Pasha, the new commander of the Constantinople garrison, who is an ardent constitutionalist. He has it in his power to make an agreement with the leaders of the Committee of Union and Progress at Salonica, and the result would be the complete unification of the Constantinople troops with the First and Third Army Corps in support of the Constitution.

Civil war, when such an understanding is as feasible, seems absurd. Reports from Constantinople already affirm that suspicion is taking root among Tuesday's multitudes that they have been humbugged, and they are expressing aversion at being induced to play a political role. But while it would seem to be easy to avoid civil war, other dangers have arisen which may well arouse general apprehension.

Religious passions have already spread through the country. They may be mitigated at their source, but not so among the still more fanatical provinces. Grave reports of massacres in the Balkans are being put in, and these are likely to increase. Albania is in revolt and is demanding autonomy. The ambitious and unscrupulous Prince Ferdinand thinks he sees Bulgaria's opportunity in Macedonia. The Sandak is in a feverish mood, and a general Balkan movement, where a settlement was assured a week ago, is threatened anew.

There is no sign yet that any foreign power had any pre-knowledge of the situation in the Turkish revolt, but all show evidence of deep concern in the possibilities of the situation. The British ambassador at St. Petersburg had a long conversation with the Czar of Russia, and the British fleet at Malta has been ordered to be in instant readiness to sail.

Sir Edward Grey, British Foreign Secretary and M. Pichon, French Minister of Foreign Affairs, have returned to the news from the Easter holidays, and every preparation is being made for all eventualities. The necessity for foreign interference would come at a peculiarly awkward moment. Austro-German ambition in the direction of Salonica is the biggest of the situation. Any paralysis of Turkey by internal dissension would create a rare opportunity, which would hardly be allowed to slip. Russia, after her humiliation three weeks ago by Germany, would remain impatient. France, in the midst of her own difficulties, would not be able to do more than to look on. The present moment under all circumstances, and the pusillanimous government of England would not fight to avert any change in the map of Europe. All these considerations arise from the almost bloodless mutiny of 20,000 troops on the shores of the Bosphorus last Tuesday.

Building and Repair Permits.
The following building and repair permits were issued in the office of the Building Inspector yesterday:

Mrs. L. Davidson, to erect a detached one-story house dwelling, 1231 Ashland Street, $400.
J. J. Hawkes, to repair frame dwelling, 924 North Thirty-first Street, $150.
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pool, to repair two frame dwellings, 525 and 523 Graham Street, Fulton, $150.

Writ of Error Granted.
In the State Supreme Court yesterday a writ of error was granted in the case of the State of Virginia vs. the Circuit Court of Orange county, and the amount involved is about $5,000.

Woodmen Entertained.
Church Hill Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, in the city of Richmond, held their annual meeting on Thursday night. There was a musical program and a debate. State Deputy M. C. Doubles delivered an address.

King Makes Assignment.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICK, Md., April 17.—J. Hupp King, dealer in groceries and provisions, made an assignment last night to A. G. Waller for the benefit of his creditors. The liabilities are $4,500 and assets about $1,800. This is the first failure here for a number of years.

OBITUARY

S. A. Lockett.
S. A. Lockett died yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at his residence, 306 Fourth Avenue, Highland Park, in the seventy-eighth year of his age. He had been an invalid for fifteen years from the effects of a stroke of paralysis from which he never recovered sufficiently to walk. Thirty years ago he became a member of the First Baptist Church of this city, where he held his membership until the Northside Church was organized. Mr. Lockett was a loyal and faithful soldier throughout the four years of the Civil War.

He leaves two sons and one daughter—W. L. Lockett, B. R. Lockett and Miss Mary Lockett, and one step-daughter, Mrs. M. J. King. The funeral will be held from the residence to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

W. A. Farmer.
W. A. Farmer, one of the oldest engineers in the employment of the Southern Railway, died yesterday afternoon at 2:10 o'clock at his residence, No. 1113 South Plum Street. He had been with the Southern Railway for more than thirty years. During the war he was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock from the residence.

Funeral of Mrs. Sheppard.
The funeral of Mrs. Samuel P. Sheppard, who died Friday morning at the residence of her son, W. D. Sheppard, in Spotsylvania county, will be held this morning at 10 o'clock from 8 West Main Street. The interment will be made in Hollywood.

Miss Rebecca Hodges.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., April 17.—Miss Rebecca Hodges, died suddenly this morning at 3 o'clock. She was in her usual health when she died. Miss Hodges was born in Norfolk, Va., in 1818. She was a most estimable and highly cultured woman. She is survived by three sons—John M. Worth, of this city; Mrs. A. B. Pearsall and Miss Julia Hild, and one nephew, Geo. H. Hodges, of Springfield, N. C.

Mrs. Retta Hook.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., April 17.—Mrs. Retta Hook, wife of Lycurgus Hook, one of Hampshire county's most prominent residents, died last night at Hook's Mill, aged forty-eight years. Mrs. Hook was known to hundreds of city people, her home being the center of a large circle of friends.

DEATHS
PUSEY.—Died, at 10:30 A. M., April 16, 1909, at the residence of his parents, 2408 East Marshall Street, LOUISA GOLDSBY, daughter of Charles A. and Mary W. Pusey, aged five years.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
"Gone, but not forgotten."

Funeral at the residence THIS (Sunday) AFTERNOON, at 4 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances invited to attend. Interment in Oakwood.

LOCKETT.—Died, Saturday, May 17, at 3 o'clock, at his residence, 306 Fourth Avenue, Highland Park, S. A. LOCKETT.

Funeral MONDAY AFTERNOON at 3 o'clock from the residence.

FARMER.—Died, at his residence, 111-12 South Plum Street, at 2:10 P. M., Saturday, the 17th, W. A. FARMER. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

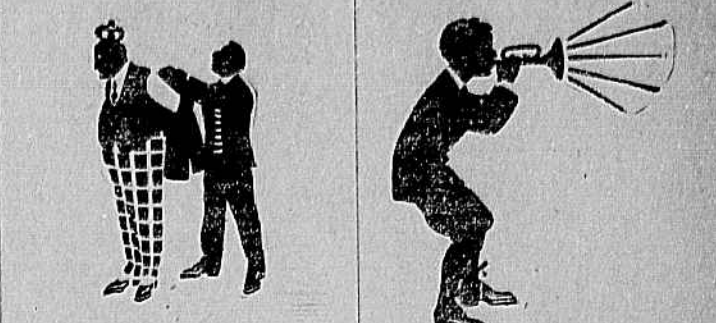

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. M. G. Farmer; two sons—R. A. and J. G. Farmer; three brothers—Charles and Marcus Farmer, of Chesterfield county, and Fred Farmer, of Danville; two sisters—Mrs. Walter H. Townsend, of Baltimore, and Mrs. M. E. Dillon, of this city. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Southern Railway, being in its employ for thirty years. He was a member of Company C, First Virginia Regiment, and was with the Mahone's brigade.

King Edward, A Bit of Blowing

So rumor runs, commands his valet to wear each new suit for a week just to rob it of its painfully stiff look.

Nothing painfully stiff or angular about our garments. They're tailored to drape softly and gracefully the day you put them on.

The Spring and Summer Models are far, far ahead in style and finish of anything we have ever displayed, and that's speaking volumes.

$12 to $25.

Our $1 range of Negligee Coat Shirts are exceptional values. Just a leader of ours. "That's all."

Jacobs & Levy.

for many camping and outing parties on Capon River.

David W. Attenbury.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SPOTSYLVANIA, VA., April 17.—David W. Attenbury, an aged citizen, died at his residence at Suell, in this county, last night, aged eighty years. Mr. Attenbury was a native of Michigan and was a Union veteran. He came to this county in 1870 and had lived here ever since. He is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter.

Mrs. Mary Sheppard.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SPOTSYLVANIA, VA., April 17.—Mrs. Mary Sheppard, mother of W. D. Sheppard, a merchant and farmer of this county, died at his residence at Fauquier's yesterday. She was seventy-five years old and leaves two sons, three daughters and four grandsons will be taken to Richmond for burial.

Mrs. Sarah S. May.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., April 17.—Mrs. Sarah S. May, aged seventy-eight years, died here to-day, after a short illness, of pneumonia. She leaves five children, two sons and three daughters, having been a Miss Peerman prior to her marriage.

I. B. Sneed.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., April 17.—I. B. Sneed died last night at his home near here after a illness of several months. He was sixty-six years of age, and leaves a wife and four children.

HADDON-AUSTIN.—Married, at the home of Rev. D. M. Ramsey, pastor of Grace Street Baptist Church, April 12, 1909, Mr. NICHOLAS HADDON and Miss LEWIS AUSTIN, both of this city.

MARRIAGES

RIGGINS-MACKEY.—Mr. J. C. RIGGINS, of Falmouth, and Miss IDA MACKEY, of Richmond, were married MONDAY MORNING, April 13, at 10:30 o'clock. The Rev. Richard N. Hartness performed the ceremony.

HADDON-AUSTIN.—Married, at the home of Rev. D. M. Ramsey, pastor of Grace Street Baptist Church, April 12, 1909, Mr. NICHOLAS HADDON and Miss LEWIS AUSTIN, both of this city.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 17.

CAPE CHAR